NOTICE OF VACANCY

Position: Student Intern

Position Type: Temporary - 3 Months (June through August - certain adjustments may be made depending on school end/start dates)

Announcement #: 10-01

Location: Boston, Massachusetts

Salary: CL 22/1 - $13.16 per hour

Opens: May 10, 2010

Closes: May 21, 2010

Position Overview

The incumbent is assigned to a U.S. Pretrial Services Officer, who voluntarily accepts the challenge for ongoing training and guidance of the applicant. This is a unique learning environment where the Intern has the opportunity to work one-on-one with the assigned officer. The intern provides supplemental assistance to the officer with every day job functions. The level of intern involvement correlates directly with the intern's skill and maturity level. The functions would include but are not limited to assisting with: computerized chronological file entries, typing/processing of reports, prior arrest history interpretations, urinalysis collections, and special projects.

Qualifications

Applicants must be U.S. Citizens or meet the exceptions to the statutory restrictions on hiring non-citizens to work in the federal government in the continental United States. Applicants for this position must be able to deal professionally and effectively with the staff and Judges of the U.S. District Court, defendants and the public. The individual selected must understand and abide by the rules, policies and regulations of the Court. General computer and word processing skills are required, including a working proficiency in Microsoft Office products. A team attitude, attention to detail and a willingness to adapt to a changing work environment are essential to maintain the Court's quality standards. Professional or businesslike approach and attire are required.

Education

To qualify, a person must be a high school graduate/equivalent and currently enrolled in an institution of higher education.

FBI Background Investigation

This position is subject to a FBI fingerprint check and background record check. Employment will be provisional and contingent upon receiving satisfactory results of both.

Hours

8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., Monday - Friday
